

Recognizing Reverence

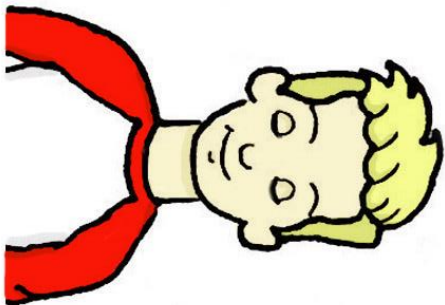

Print and cut the Reverence Flash Cards (If you'd like, print the cards twice to create a memory game). Go over each card with your young children and read off the description. Explain to your children whether the card shows reverence or not. If you'd like, act out each card. After going over the flash cards, have your children find the reverent cards among the cards that do not show reverence. If you choose to play a memory game with the cards, make sure to establish which cards are reverent and which aren't as you make matches.
