Five Truths Testimony

"Hey Mom?" Auggie found her in the kitchen. "I've been hearing a lot about bearing my testimony and making my testimony stronger... But what am I supposed to bear testimony of?"

"There are many things that can help strengthen your testimony," Mom began. "But I know a way to help you remember five core doctrines of the church. Follow me!" Mom led Auggie to her craft room. She searched for a moment until she found a little glove with pictures glued to each finger.

"These truths are the foundation of our church. It's important to develop a testimony of these five things." Mom slipped the glove on Auggie's hand. She pointed to his thumb.

"Like the First Article of Faith, we believe in God the Eternal Father," then she pointed to his pointer finger. "And in His son, Jesus Christ. They both live and love you very much."

"Next is Joseph Smith!" Auggie smiled.

"Yes! We know that Joseph Smith restored the church and translated the Book of Mormon. Let's see, what's next?"

"The temple." Auggie said pointing to his ring finger.

"The temple represents The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. We know that this is the true church. Isn't it great that we can be with our families together forever? The covenants made in the temple give us that amazing blessing. And the last one is..."

"The prophet!" Auggie smiled back at his picture.

"Right. We know that we are led by a prophet today who reveals what Heavenly Father wants us to do. Now, the white glove is covering your hand. The glove is like the Holy Ghost, who will tell you that all these things are true."

"Wow, this is great, Mom! Thanks!" Auggie exclaimed as he examined each picture again.

"I hope that you'll continue to learn and understand more about each of these truths so you can strengthen your own testimony!"

"I will!" Auggie said as he walked back to his room with the glove still on his hand.
