

Show Your Love

"I love Jesus, Mama." June said as she colored a picture with May.

"Oh, that's very sweet, June!" Mom gushed. "He loves you too!"

"Mom," May began. "Jesus does so much for us. He gives us blessings and He sacrificed Himself for us. We can say we love Him, but how can we show Him we love Him? I can't give him a hug or this picture."

"Wow, May," Mom smiled. "That's quite a question! And it's so great you're concerned in showing Jesus love. Guess what? The scriptures tell us what we can do to show God and Jesus our love."

"Really?" May asked. "What do the scriptures say?"

"Keep the commandments." Mom said simply.

"Keep the commandments? How do God and Jesus feel loved when we do that?" May wondered out loud.

"Another good question!" Mom laughed. "Commandments are important. They're kind of like rules that God has asked us to follow. I know that when you follow the rules we have made in our own home, I feel loved. It means you have listened and understand the rules and respect me and those rules."

"Oh so keeping the commandments is respectful to Jesus? And he feels loved when we respect Him?"

"Yes! Exactly!" Mom winked.

"I keep cah-dem-dants!" June squealed. "I love Jesus!"

"I will too, June," May laughed. "Because I love Him too!"
