

Remembering God

“Mom?” Auggie stopped eating his cereal. “The scriptures talk about how the people forget God and how bad that is. What happens when you forget God?”

“Hmm,” Mom thought for a moment. “It’s kind of like when I forgot where I put the keys to the car. Do you remember?”

“Yeah!” Auggie laughed. “I was hoping we wouldn’t have to go to school!”

“See, without the car keys we were unable to get around anywhere, like when I couldn’t drive you to school. When we forget God, we forget all the blessings He has given us. We start to make bad choices. God has done so much for us. If we forget Him, we can’t progress on earth.”

“Whoa,” Auggie’s eyes widened as he gulped another spoonful of cereal. “How can we make sure we remember Him?”

“There are a lot of different ways to remember God!” Mom smiled. “We can remember Him when we say our prayers and read the scriptures. We can remember Him when we see a beautiful rainbow or sunset in the sky. And when we need to make a choice, we can remember God and that we want to return to Him one day! When we do that, we make good choices!”

“I don’t ever want to forget God,” Auggie admitted. “I’ll always try to remember Him.”
